STEVEN NEDERVEEN

Born in Edmonton, AB, Canada in 1971

EDUCATION:

1991 - 95 University of Alberta, Edmonton, AB - Bachelor of Design

1989 - 90 Medicine Hat College, AB

HIGHLIGHTS:

I typically have 2-3 solo exhibitions every year. This year, I have exhibitions with Bau-Xi Gallery in Toronto this April, Canada House Gallery in Banff this May and Bau-Xi Gallery in Vancouver this November, 2023.

2022

- CreatorsVancouver.com posted a great Q&A about my exhibit "The Ocean In Us". Find it here.

2020

- Art Toronto 2020 - Online panel discussion with Vicki Smith and Darlene Cole.
- Joined ARTPLEX GALLERY in Los Angeles.

2018

- Air Canada purchased 3 paintings for their new Air Canada Lounge at La Guardia Airport in New York.
- I was on the curatorial team for "The Brain Project". A city-wide outdoor art exhibit, featuring a variety of brain sculptures designed by a talented group of artists, celebrities and thought-leaders from across North America. Through The Brain Project, awareness and much-needed funds are raised for brain health in support of Baycrest, a global leader in Alzheimer's and dementia research.

2017

As part of the Canada 150th celebrations, I was invited to create a painting for the Canadian Embassy in Iceland. It is on permanent display. I also gave two audio/visual presentations in Iceland, one in Akureyri and one in Reykjavik.
